

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE ST. JOE COMMUNITY FOUNDATION DONATES $10,000 TO BE TITLE SPONSOR FOR KLOTHES 4 KIDS

On Tuesday, June 25, 2013, The St. Joe Community Foundation's Board of Trustees will present a check for $10,000 to Reverend Billy Fox, Executive Director for the Pathways Christian Recovery Ministries, to be Title Sponsor for this year's Klothes for Kids program. Celebrating its ninth year because of generous community support, the Klothes for Kids program provides school uniforms, shoes, school supplies and play clothes for more than 1,400 underprivileged children.

"The St. Joe Community Foundation is proud to be the Title Sponsor for Klothes for Kids," said Park Brady, CEO for The St. Joe Company and a Trustee for The St. Joe Community Foundation. "Helping children in our area get ready for school is a priority."

On Friday and Saturday, August 16th and 17th, volunteers, staff, and students of Pathways Christian Recovery Ministries will distribute the clothing and supplies at the Bay County Fair Grounds. Families must be pre-registered for distribution appointments. To register by phone call the Pathways Christian Recovery Ministries Development Office at 850-481-1094, 9am-2pm Monday-Friday. To register in person, come to the PCRMS Support Center, 515 6th Street, 9am-11am Monday-Friday, at 515 E. 6th St. To become a sponsor, a volunteer, or to donate, go to www.pcrmission.org.

The St. Joe Community Foundation has contributed more than $17 million in grants and pledges to local groups that care about Northwest Florida, its environment and its residents. The Foundation believes strongly in the improvement of education, healthcare and nurturing children, supporting cultural arts, and maintaining and preserving our quality of life. To learn more about The St. Joe Community Foundation go to www.stjcf.com.

###