

Panama City Rescue Mission: Transforming lives in Bay County since 1972

Panama City Rescue Mission, 609 Allen Ave., is a faith-based nonprofit organization committed to providing immediate relief and genuine stability to men, women and children in need in Bay County.

"Before coming to the rescue mission, I lived a life of compromise, brokenness and addiction. Now, I've learned how to deeply trust God. And I know I'll never be the same."
-Amanda
PCR program client

"When I reflect on how I am now on the road to recovery, I know that it was God's plan to rebuild my life for His glory; I know He led me to the rescue mission."
-James
Vietnam Veteran and PCR program graduate

WHO WE SERVE

- 64% of people PCR serves are Bay County natives.
- 70% of individuals served at PCR's women's campus are women with children.
- 300 people in Bay County experience homelessness each night. Of these, 15% are chronically homeless. PCR seeks to provide tools for success to the remaining 85%.
- 13% of clients served are veterans.
